Teachers are the most indispensable thing for any school and we have the world's best teaching staff. Who give their best to shape the character and life of the students.

Teaching staff include professional personnel directly involved in teaching students, including classroom teachers, special education teachers and other teachers who work with students as a whole class, in small groups, or in one-to-one teaching. Teaching staff also include department chairs of whose duties include some teaching, but it does not include non-professional personnel who support teachers in providing instruction to students, such as teachers' aides and other paraprofessional personnel.

CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

Bhartiya School aims to provide a good quality and a variety of extra-curricular provision in the school.

Extra-curricular activities are a great way for children to learn about the world around them. It is important that they are given an outlet for their extra energy and curiosity so that they can grow into healthy, well-rounded adults with a wide range of knowledge and experiences. However, more than just being fun, extra-curricular activities also teach children how to be social in many different situations which will help them later on in life once they enter the workforce. Extracurricular activities help children to develop their social skills and learn how to work in a team to achieve a shared goal. These activities allow your child the opportunity to explore different areas of interest, increase self-confidence, build leadership skills and even improve grades — all while having fun!

PERFORMING ART

Performing arts being an integral part of education provide students with the opportunity to engage the mind, the body, and emotions.

The performing arts in education play a hugely significant role in helping children develop their creative skills and overall personality, but are often overshadowed by academic subjects leaving a little time for children to pursue what they love. Educationists have realized its direst need and hence, are emphasizing the importance of emotional intelligence, developing creative minds, fostering personalities and imagination as children mark their journey through school, to become happy and well-rounded individuals.

DANCE

Dancing improves the ability of understanding music and moving in harmony. Students are able to inculcate self-discipline and do not deviate from their focused path.

Frequently a child is disturbed about a situation at home or in school. Dancing away the blues eases the tension in the youthful minds. They can focus on other aspects of education as it releases the strain from the body. There is no denying that the importance of dance in primary schools has improved the grades of several students. It is a misconception that intelligence comes merely with mathematical reasoning or with learning modern languages. In extreme cases of pressure, children are able to tackle bullying and violence by swaying to a few steps to freestyle music. Dancing improves the ability of understanding music and moving in harmony. Students are able to inculcate self-discipline and do not deviate from their focused path.
